

Horse emergency kit

- Protective clothing, boots, face scarf
- Battery powered or wind-up radio
- Waterproof torch, batteries for torch & smartphone
- Current veterinary medications
- Halters, leads, spare rope, hoof pick
- Rug/blankets
- Clean towels
- Horse feed and water for 3 days
- Laminated written instructions for horse feed & care
- Water bucket
- Wire/fence cutters
- Knife & baling twine, duct tape, large cable ties
- Rubbish bags
- Fly repellent
- Electric fence kit for yarding or temporary fencing and hammer (star pickets and bunting)
- Emergency contacts list
- Maps of local area
- Copy of ownership papers
- List of possible agistment places, family and friends with paddocks out of the emergency zone.
- List of buddies willing and able to look after your animals if you are not at home.
- Alternative power e.g. generators. Ensure they are maintained & tested.
- Horse first aid kit (see next page)

Horse first aid kit

Pack items in waterproof containers in a kit, ready to quickly load into the float.

- 2 x rolls of bandaging tapes
- 2 x rolls of adhesive bandage
- 1 x roll of cotton wool (30 cm x 375 g)
- 1 x roll of cotton gauze or crepe bandage (7.5 cm wide)
- 2 x disposable nappies or sanitary napkins to act as pressure pads to stop bleeding
- 1 x bottle of a wound-cleaning agent such as povidone iodine
- 1 x bottle of wound antiseptic (eg. CETRIGEN®)
- 1 x jar of petroleum jelly
- 1 x digital thermometer
- 1 x 60mL syringe or an old, but clean worming syringe for flushing wounds
- 1 x container of a soothing, cooling liniment (eg. RAPIGEL®)
- 1 x container of a soothing, antiseptic cream (eg. SEPTICIDE®)
- 1 x small pack of salt for making salt solutions to cleanse wounds
- 1 x pack of gauze swabs
- 1 x pair of curved, blunt ended scissors
- 1 x pair of tweezers
- Non-latex gloves
- Current medication
- List of vet phone numbers